ADMINISTRATION BUILDING AND CAMPUS

God Opens the Door

The year 1930 was of extraordinary significance to Cleveland Bible College, for by this time the conditions around the college were not conducive to the growth of the school; and moreover, its facilities were inadequate to care for the growing student body.

After much prayer by both students and faculty, a Fellowship of Intercession was formed, with Professor Byron L. Osborne as chairman. The growth of this band was miraculous. Within one year it had 278 members representing eighteen states and Canada.

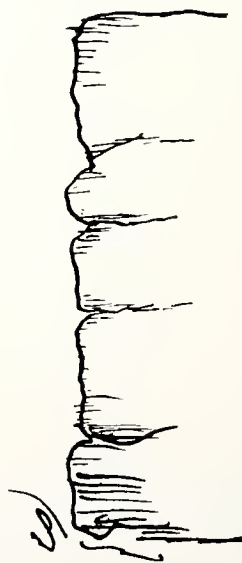

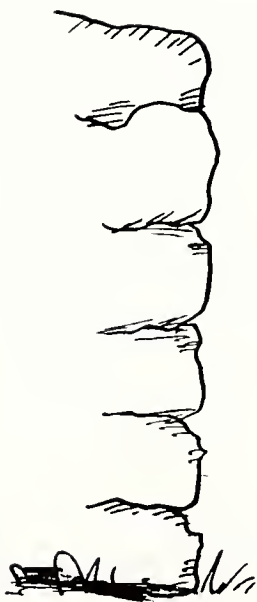

Although for a number of years there was constant prayer for a new location, there was no definite answer from God. Several buildings had been considered, but none was desirable. Could it be that our God was unable to answer believing prayer? No, for we were soon to see Him work. Two buildings on Euclid Avenue at Thirty-second Street were for sale. At first satisfactory arrangements for the purchase of the buildings could not be reached. One day, however, notice was received that the owners of the property were willing to accept our terms. We realized that God had answered our prayers. With this evidence of divine blessing, C. B. C. may courageously enter the "Opening Doors" to wider service.

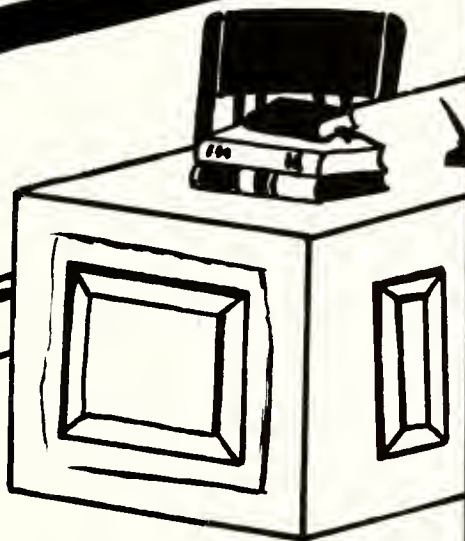

DEDICATION

TO MYRA I. MARTIN, OUR NURSE,
WHO BY HER CHEERFUL AND UN-
SELFISH MINISTRY, HER PRACTI-CAL COUNSEL, HER CONTAGIOUS
JOY IN EVERYDAY CHRISTIAN
LIVING, HAS ENDEARED HERSELF
TO THE WHOLE COLLEGE FAM-ILY: WHO NOW IS ENTERING AN OPEN DOOR TO SERVICE IN INDIA,
WE GLADLY DEDICATE THIS VOLUME OF THE

WORTHY A. SPRING

PRESIDENT

President Spring is responsible for much of the material progress of our college. His initiative, drive, and foresight have helped to make C. B. C. a growing and spiritual institution in position to exercise a larger ministry.

VICE-PRESIDENT

Our Vice-President, Mr. Osborne, is the senior professor of the faculty. He has devoted many years of faithful service to the college. Students will long remember him for the depth of his prayer life and for the richness of his teaching ministry.

Greetings

Abundant, victorious living, this is our heritage in Christ Jesus! Thank God, I have found this abundant life of joy and peace; not a life of ease and pleasure, but one of purposeful activity inspired by His presence. He has not promised sunshine all the way. At times dark shadows of temptation hover near, but He has promised grace for every need. Here at C. B. C. the associations with faculty and students, and the chapel services, have contributed to this abundant life.

—Ruth E. Dumm.

As a new member of the Cleveland Bible College faculty I recognize the guiding hand of the Lord in this field of service. I find here a group of students who are responsive and who put forth every effort to advance not only in the realm of the scholastic but also in the realm of the spiritual. Such a group of students challenges me to give my very best for them, who in turn will give their utmost for others.

—Evelyn Cosand.

When I was asked to be college nurse at Cleveland Bible College, I remembered my promise to God that I would "stand in the gap and fill up the hedge." Here was a need; here was an opportunity for service. Yes, but who was I? . . . But God! . . . "Now therefore go," came as a command from heaven and humbly I assume the responsibility for this semester, realizing that my sufficiency is in God. The joy bells are ringing, and I am praising the Lord for victory through His blood.

—Ruth E. Fagerland, R.N.

*Treasurer, MARION SHIELDS, Anderson, Indiana
A.B., Asbury College '45*

Class Treas. '46; Monitor '46.

Marion hasn't been with us long, but his versatility and winsome personality have given him an important place in our student body.

SENIOR CLASS

As we approach the close of four eventful years at C.B.C., we are aware that they have been difficult years in many ways. We have pursued our studies in the midst of a world gone mad with bloodshed and bitterness. With burdened hearts we have watched the most titanic struggle in history take place; and as we have studied, worked, and prayed, we have longed for the day when peace would open to us the many doors of opportunity for ministering to a needy world.

We have seen that day arrive.

This last year of school has had particular significance for us as we face a world threatened by the ravages of atomic power. Truly there is still "great distress among nations, men's hearts failing them for fear." We are well aware of the tremendous challenge of the hour; and we are thankful to God that we have the one message which the world needs, a message of complete redemption through Jesus Christ.

The motto we have chosen is found in the title of one of the great hymns of the church, "A Charge To Keep." One verse of this song is our theme as we fearlessly face the future:

"To serve the present age;
Our calling to fulfill,
O may it all our powers engage
To do the Master's will."

SENIORS

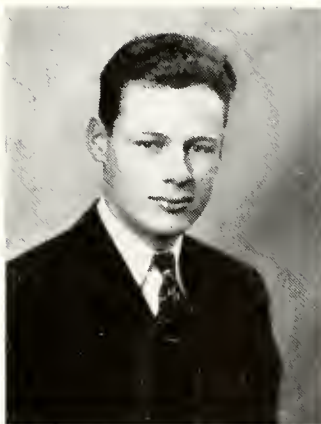

WAYNE ALLMAN, Friendswood, Texas
Friends Bible College '43, '44

Class Treas. '45; Soul Winners' Club '45, '46;
Choir '45, '46; Choir Vice Pres. '46.

Wayne has that quiet, dignified air, but he has a sense of humor, too.- We appreciate his genuine Christian character.

VIRGINIA ALTMAN, Fostoria, Ohio
CleBiCo Ass't Ed. '45.

Talented, charming, always interesting, Virginia has contributed much to the lives of her friends of C.B.C.

HARRIETT ANDERSON, Youngstown, Ohio
Day Girls' Prayer Band Pres. '45; Missionary League '43-'46.

Optimism, ready acceptance of responsibility, and depth of devotion to God all combine to make Harriett a true Christian.

EUGENE BAXTER, Cleveland, Ohio
Soul Winners' Pres. '43-'45; Missionary League Treas. '44.

"Gene" is a conscientious Christian whose service for the Master has already made him an enthusiastic soul winner.

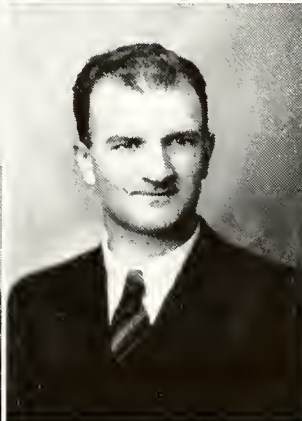

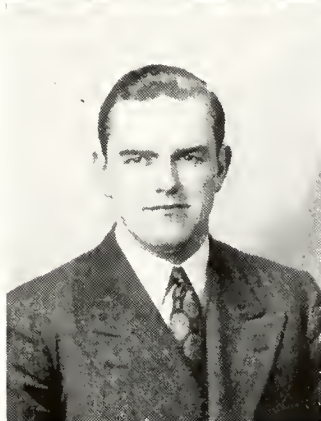

LEONARD BORTON, Damascus, Ohio
Voice Staff '43; Class Vice Pres. '44; CleBiCo Advertising Mgr. '44; Class Pres. '45.

Friendly, serious, and steadfast in his purpose is this proud father. Leonard's joviality and aggressiveness will be effective in God's cause.

WILLARD DUNN, Mebane, North Carolina
The People's Bible School '43
Soul Winners' Club '45, '46.

Willard doesn't laugh often, but when he does! His sobriety, thoughtfulness, and faithful service might well be patterned by all.

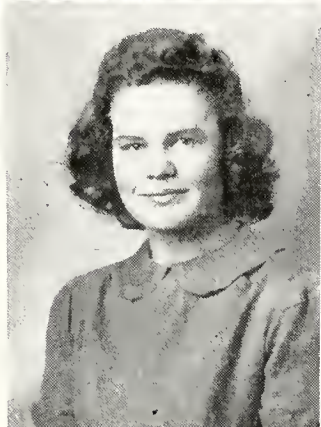

DELLA FIREBAUGH, West Salem, Ohio
Missionary League '44-'46.

A gay, imaginative lover of knowledge is Della. We appreciate her joyful spirit, consistency, and determination to make life worth living.

ROBERT FORD, Hilton Village, Virginia
Special Choir '43-'45; CleBiCo Staff '44; Voice Staff '44; Missionary League '45, '46; Soul Winners Club '43-'46.

Music and Eleanor seem to be Bob's outstanding interests. Your kindness and devotion to God have been a blessing to all of us, Bob.

SENIORS

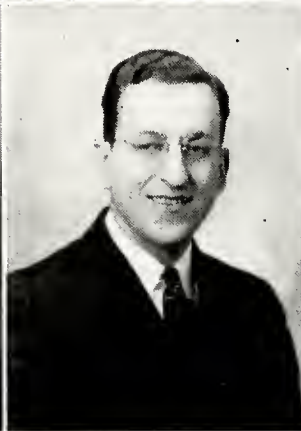

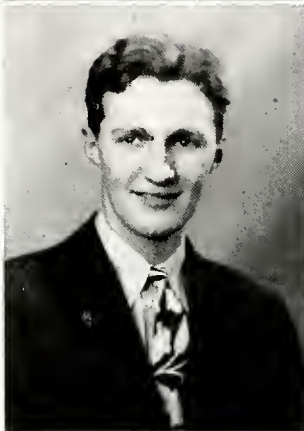

GEORGE FOYE, New Bedford, Massachusetts
Eastern Nazarene College '43

Missionary League '44-'46; Class Pres. '45;
Gleaners' Vice Pres. '45; Sergeant-at-Arms '46.

Unassuming and congenial but superior in intellect and ability. George promises to be a successful worker in God's kingdom.

ARLENE FRYHOFF, Newport News, Virginia
Missionary League '43-'46; Special Choir '43, '46; Girls' Trio '43, '46; Dormitory Girls' Council Pres. '46.

There are no dull moments when Arlene is around. A forceful personality and musical ability combine to make her an excellent leader.

MELVIN GROSSMAN, Cleveland, Ohio
Fort Wayne Bible Institute '43, '44
Missionary League '45, '46.

Nonchalance plus good humor equals Melvin. We have found him to be a loyal friend and a sincere follower of Christ.

TILLMAN HABEGGER, Cleveland, Ohio
Fort Wayne Bible Institute '29
Detroit Institute of Technology '37, '38
Baldwin-Wallace College '40, '41

Efficiency, industry, and boundless energy characterize Tillman Habegger. His friendliness and initiative have been a real inspiration to all of us.

JUNIOR CLASS

The junior class, through three happy years, has moved steadily on toward its desired goal—graduation.

Looking back over these years, we feel profoundly grateful for the knowledge gained and the growth in spiritual life attained. Our first year was one of making adjustments, and learning conformity to rules and regulations. Habits of study came hard for most of us, but as the year swiftly passed, we learned to apply ourselves. The second year we learned that all knowledge had not been acquired the first year, but rather that there was still a vast wealth of learning to be obtained; thus we set ourselves to the task and privilege before us, eager to demonstrate our ability to adapt ourselves to study.

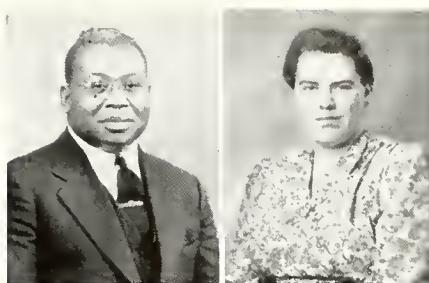

Looking toward the future, our class shares mingled emotions of sad regret and of hopeful anticipation. The blessings enjoyed as a class cause us to regret the fact that we have only one more year together. Yet, the vision of a needy world and the call of God burning on our hearts make us eager to launch out into an unknown but victorious future of service for our Master.

Many of the class have received definite calls to pastoral, evangelistic and missionary endeavor; others, as yet, do not know their future fields of service. But all of us are determined to be found in the center of the will of God, seeking always to live our class motto—"Not I but Christ."

We, the sophomore class, can say with the sacred writer, "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." When we recall the blessings and lessons of prayer and trust the Lord taught us last year, we are encouraged to go forward anticipating even greater things this year. It is our purpose to be the spiritual class that God wants us to be so that we shall truly "Prepare for the Harvest." We unite in saying in the words of our class song:

"All for Jesus! All for Jesus!
All my being's ransomed pow'rs:
All my thoughts and words and doings,

"Living, loving, and serving Christ" is the motto and earnest desire of each member of our freshman class. The song and prayer of our hearts, "Make Me A Blessing," has led us to C. B. C. that we might be laborers together with God.

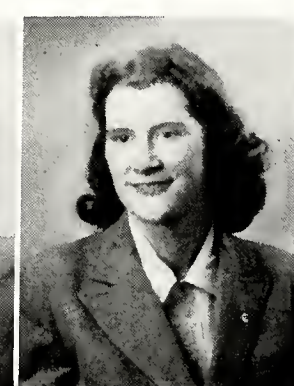

A few of us know the Lord's leading for our lives and are preparing for His service; others are seeking to know His will and are walking in the light that they may know "that good and acceptable and perfect will of God."

The fellowship we have found with the faculty and the students is a source of much encouragement and inspiration to us. We praise God for leading us here!

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The Music Department of Cleveland Bible College purposes to exalt Christ in song and melody. We strive to maintain a high cultural standard and to develop an appreciation of fine music. Recitals given by the students enable them to feel at ease before the public. Interpretation is greatly stressed to bring out the rich and colorful feeling of musical passages. Trained assistants who supervise student practice give each pupil individual attention.

Quartet, trio, and group work is highly encouraged and used by our practical work department. The Special Choir, consisting of thirty students, renders complete programs in churches of various denominations throughout Ohio and neighboring states. Membership in this choir requires that each student maintain a high academic standing and possess a genuine Christian experience. The General Chorus, which meets each week for practice, presents at least two programs during the school year.

The sincere desire of the entire Music Department is that it may exalt Christ.

MISSIONARY LEAGUE

The Missionary League is an organization made up of all students who have a vital interest in or a definite call to some field of missionary service.

The blessing of the Lord has been upon the League as we have been obedient to Him, and we have grown numerically, as well as spiritually.

At the present time, the student body is supporting two graduates of the school, Miss Ella Ruth Pratt, '39, and Miss Norma Freer, '44, as they labor in the needy field of India. Under the leadership of the Lord, the League hopes, in the near future, to have a missionary on each major mission field of the world.

We have completed our third annual missionary convention, and as we press on, we hear the words of our motto ringing in our ears: "If Jesus Christ be God and died for me, then no sacrifice can be too great for me to make for Him."

Missionary Convention

"Our Part in His Service—For Them" was the theme for the Third Annual Missionary Convention held November 5-9, 1945.

As we sat under the ministry of Spirit-filled missionaries those five days, much of the glamour and romance of mission work was pushed aside and the actual, everyday realities were vividly revealed. We saw more clearly the part we, as individuals, have in giving and praying, as well as in going, should God lay His hand upon us.

Our speakers included Rev. Everett Cattell of the Friends Mission in India, Rev. and Mrs. Karl Rice of the N. H. M. S. in India, Miss Anna Nixon, '39, on her way to India when interned in Manila in 1942, Mrs. Lewellyn Lockwood, '29, of the Nazarene Mission in Argentina, Mrs. Julia Lake Kellersberger, of the American Mission to the Lepers, and Miss Claire Ulmer, '39, of the Kentucky Mountain Holiness Association.

Extra features which added interest to the Convention were curio exhibits, snapshots and photographs, literature, the presentation of native costumes, and finally, moving pictures and slides depicting the work of various fields.

This Convention is now history; but the clear ringing call, "Go ye into all the world," remains as a constant challenge to our hearts.

OUR MISSIONARIES

Ella Ruth Pratt

Since November, 1939, when Ella Ruth Pratt, '39, sailed for India under the National Holiness Missionary Society, our students have experienced a growing burden in prayer for the salvation of precious souls in that dark land. We have rejoiced as reports have come of souls who have found our Christ as their Saviour, too. Testimonies from them have encouraged our hearts and strengthened our faith.

Norma Freer

Bundelkhand, with its whitened harvest fields, is being held before the throne daily, as we remember Norma Freer, '44, our own missionary, who labors there. After she learns the language, she will assist in the office of the mission hospital and witness to the saving grace of Jesus Christ. Our hearts and prayers are with her as she scatters sunshine and wins precious souls to the Master.

Myra Martin

Cleveland Bible College is rejoicing that a member of the faculty, Myra I. Martin, R.N., college nurse, has been accepted for missionary service in Kolar Town, South India, under the National Holiness Missionary Society. For the present she will be superintendent of nurses in a Methodist Mission Hospital. Although Miss Martin is not our missionary in the same sense as Miss Pratt and Miss Freer, she will always belong to us, and will have a prominent place in our prayers.

SOUL WINNERS' CLUB

Practical Work is to the ministerial student what an internship is to the medical student. The intern is helping to relieve suffering and to prolong life, but at the same time he is gaining practical experience in preparation for his work in the future. So it is in the work of the Soul Winners' Club, a branch of the Practical Work Department. The student is helping to rescue souls from the bondage of sin; at the same time he is gaining experience in distributing tracts, holding street meetings and jail services, singing, preaching, praying, and witnessing. Thus he is better qualified for the place of service he is to fill in the future.

PRACTICAL WORK DEPARTMENT

That which cannot be made practical is useless. We may be able to assimilate the truths of many branches of learning; but unless we can make them productive of blessing to mankind, our study has been in vain.

Realizing that if acquired knowledge is not put into practice it will become dormant and finally be forgotten, the Cleveland Bible College urges all students, whom circumstances do not hinder, to engage in some form of practical work. In this work they learn that the technicalities of the text books are vital principles in the great task of kingdom building.

Calls for preachers, singers, and Sunday School teachers are continually being filled by the students. Cleveland affords many opportunities for service in large churches, in missions, in hospitals, on the street, in the jail, or in any place where people are hungry for the gospel. The students go everywhere—preaching the Word. And, "God giveth the increase."

Dormitory Prayer Band

Vice- President, Joyce Sallows

Secretary-Treasurer, Lois Schurman

Can you think of a better place for Christian fellowship than around the tables where you and your friends have partaken of a good meal? The dormitory students have found the dining hall to be the ideal place for their regular Thursday evening prayer meeting held in behalf of missionaries on various fields. During these brief but profitable quarter hours, missionary work and workers are discussed, prayer requests are voiced, and earnest intercessory prayer is offered.

The Prayer Band has a two-fold purpose: first, to increase the interest in missions, and second, to pray for the various needs of the field. From the Call to Prayer, the monthly periodical of the National Holiness Missionary Society, we learn of these needs.

Day Girls' Prayer Band

President, Alvira Thomas

Vice-President, Freda Farmer

Secretary-Treasurer, Lillian Slagle

Girls who live outside the college dormitories meet in the Ella Ruth Lounge each Thursday afternoon for prayer.

At this time we become acquainted with the workers, the conditions, the activities, the opportunities, and the needs on the mission fields of the National Holiness Missionary Society. These needs we present to the Lord in prayer, and, as we are reminded, we remember them in our daily devotions. In this way we learn the secret of becoming prayer laborers for God.

Gleaners' Association

President, Gilbert Thomas

Vice-President, Kenneth Headland

Secretary, Dorothy Pass

Treasurer, George Emmitt

Every student of Cleveland Bible College is a member of the Gleaners' Association, which has as its purpose the winning of souls and the gaining of new students for the college. To fulfill this two-fold purpose, the Gleaners are sponsors of the annual Youth Conference. During this time of spiritual blessing, many young people find Christ as their personal Saviour and respond to His call to service. In many instances these young people choose C. B. C. as the place of preparation for this service. Another project sponsored by the Gleaners is the Big Brother-Big Sister Plan, which helps to make new students feel at home at C. B. C.

PARING CREW

Among the greatest pleasures of life

Eating is cert'nly a winner;

And the paring crew is where they start

To get us all our dinner.

KITCHEN CREW

The kitchen crew then makes the food

As good as good could be;

TABLE SETTERS

These girls see that the tables

Are arranged as they should be.

WAITERS

From kitchen to table the waiters bring

The good things out at noon:

WAITRESSES

While at night we're served by waitresses.

(Supper's over all too soon.)

DISH CREW

The dish crew cleans up afterward
And makes the kitchen neat:
Then we have to wait till morn
For another chance to eat.

SAGA

DORM

It was in Oole we first met,
Just eleven girls 'tis true;
In case you know us not as yet,
We'll introduce ourselves to you.

So first we'll introduce "Miss Long";
She's Iris to us all,
And on this one thing we're not wrong—
Her red hair makes them fall.

Her room-mate is the next to meet,
And Dimple is her name.
We will agree that she is sweet,
We're surely glad she came.

Our only "soph" is Darlington;
She sort of "Mothers" us.
Whene'r the rules we try to shun,
She'll raise an awful fuss!

"Millie Parlier" greets us next
In wreathin' smiles as sunny rays.
You'll know her by her merry text,
"Just busy times and happy days."

Shirley Ricard is small and cute
Such optimism and carefree fun.
To Oole she's an attribute
In friendship and in good deeds done.

Our victim next is Genia Edwards
With hair so long and black;
Her sweetness is not told in words,
And in love she does not lack.

Downstairs we go—here's Ida Nagy,
A senior, don't you know?
By her example we can see
How love sets hearts aglow.

Now Helen is the quiet one;
In slow but mannered poise
She shows us how we may have fun
Without such awful noise.

Rollicking, funny, yet studious too,
Blanche Slusser now you meet,
Besides her honesty clear to view
She's charming, kind, and sweet.

Here is little Peggy Block
Quiet, sweet, we'll all agree.
She stands upon the Solid Rock:
A blessing rare she's bound to be.

The Scriptures Dorothy can repeat—
Just puts us all to shame!
Her match we don't expect to meet,
Indeed, this is her fame.

Now you've met us one by one,
A blessing we all hope to prove.
And in this world by sin undone
Show forth the Savior's life and love.

CHAPEL

The most sacred memories which C. B. C. students cherish throughout life center in the college chapel. How our hearts thrill as we join in singing the great hymns and songs of the church! The fervent prayers voiced by Spirit-filled instructors or students lift us closer to God as we bow in His presence. There, insincerity vanishes, and honest confessions bring peace to our souls. We share the burdens which God has laid on our hearts and the victories which we have won by His grace. We thank God for these precious memories.

PERRY HAYDEN'S DYNAMIC KERNELS

Illustrating { The Fact of Spiritual Re-birth
The Values and Blessing of the Tithe
The Rest of the Sabbath

Showing a portion of the crowd that gathered for an interesting Dynamic Kernels token planting on the Euclid Campus of the Cleveland Bible College.

Inspired by a sermon in 1940, Perry Hayden started with one cubic inch of wheat. Planting, Reaping, Tithing has been a six-year cycle of activity with him until this final year 2,500 acres are under cultivation in Dynamic Kernels Wheat—all the result of the death and resurrection of one cubic inch!!

Showing principals in Dynamic Kernels program: Clifton J. Robinson, whose sermon inspired Perry Hayden; Perry Hayden, who planned and perpetuated the project; Worthy A. Spring, president of C. B. C., scene of token planting.

"Out and Out for Christ"

Cleveland Bible College is located on Cleveland's historic Euclid Avenue, thus making it more convenient for students, not only to reach their places of employment but to fill their practical work appointments.

The primary aim of the college is to prepare young people for Christian service both at home and abroad.

One of the outstanding things about the college is its delightful Christian atmosphere.

Cleveland Bible College offers three courses:

- (1) College course with a major in Bible leading to the degree of Bachelor of Theology.
- (2) Three-year Bible course leading to a diploma.
- (3) Three-year Gospel Music Course leading to a diploma.
